Maison Market - Terms and Conditions

Last updated: November 9, 2026. Please read these Terms and Conditions carefully before creating an account or placing an order on Maison Market. By creating an account you confirm that you have read, understood and accepted them.

1. Acceptance

These terms form an agreement between you and Maison Market. If you do not agree with any part of them, you must not create an account or use the store.

2. Your account

You must provide true, complete and up-to-date information during registration, including your name, phone number and address. You are responsible for keeping your password confidential and for all activity under your account. We may suspend accounts that provide false information or misuse the store.

3. Registration steps

Access to prices, product details and checkout is reserved for members who complete every registration step: account creation, human verification, the preferences survey, personal details and acceptance of these terms.

4. Products and prices

We make every effort to describe products and show prices accurately. Prices are in US dollars and may change without notice. Items marked SALE receive a 10% discount for members. If an error in a price is detected, we will contact you before processing the order.

5. Orders and payment

Placing an order is an offer to purchase. An order is confirmed once payment is received or, for cash on delivery and bank transfer, once we accept it. We may refuse or cancel orders in case of suspected fraud, stock issues or pricing errors, with a full refund of any amount paid.

6. Shipping

Orders are shipped to the address you provide. Shipping is free on orders over $100. Delivery dates are estimates and may vary. Please make sure your address and phone number are correct.

7. Cancellations and refunds

You may request to cancel an order before it ships, or request a refund for an item returned in its original condition within 30 days of delivery. Refunds are issued to the original payment method once the return is received and inspected.

8. Privacy

We use your personal data (email, name, phone, address and survey answers) only to manage your account, process and deliver your orders, and personalize recommendations. We do not sell your data. You can ask us to update or delete your information at any time.

9. Intellectual property

All content on the store, including texts, images and original artworks, belongs to Maison Market or its makers and may not be copied or reused without permission.

10. Limitation of liability

To the extent permitted by law, Maison Market is not liable for indirect damages arising from the use of the store. Nothing in these terms limits rights you have as a consumer under applicable law.

11. Changes to these terms

We may update these terms from time to time. The current version will always be available on the store. Continuing to use your account after a change means you accept the updated terms.

12. Contact

If you have questions about these terms, contact our customer service team through the store.
